President's Message

I want to take the time to say "Please" and "Thank You!" to all my fellow members!

First, "Thank You! Thank You! Thank You!"

As you know, our group's administrator, Eleanor Hubbard, left us last August – just as I was beginning my term as President. There was quite a bit of nervousness over making the transition to running our group for ourselves and by ourselves. There have been bumps along the way. However, I am thrilled at the incredible strides we have made as a group. I am also excited over the number of members who have stepped forward to help in various capacities. With the number of roles and responsibilities we all have on our plates in our business and personal lives, it is always challenging to get tons of member involvement. Or so I thought! Thank you to all who have responded, "Yes!" when I've personally asked for help. Thank you to all who have responded, "Yes" when another board member has reached out for help.

28% of our current membership is actively working on the Exceptional Woman of the Year/Scholarship Lunch. 48% of our current members have actively helped in various capacities at the lunches and for the group in general. Did you realize that we have such an active membership? I did but I didn't think the percentages were quite that high. Wow!

Now, I'd like to say, "Please."

Please, continue to pitch in whenever you can! It is making a huge difference. I feel the energy in the room during our lunches. Do you? I see the interaction among everyone. Have you noticed? Did you know that quite a few guests are finding us through our new website, Linked In, or Facebook? Did you realize that our membership is up approximately 20% in the last 6 months?

Our Exceptional Woman of the Year/Scholarship Lunch is fast approaching. I ask you - please invite as many women as you can think of to join us at this special event. It will not only help us to raise needed scholarship funds but it will also help us to showcase our awesome group to other executive women in the community.

Tickets for EWOTY can be purchased on our website. You can also purchase a table for 8 at the price of 7 tickets.

Have you purchased your ticket yet? If you haven't, please make sure you don't miss this great event!

See you on April 10th!
