President's Message

Dear Members and Friends,

On November 17th, the board of directors decided to take a different route in their annual March fundraising event. A decision was made to focus on raising monies for scholarships. With the current economy and future years to come we feel it will be of greater benefit to focus on the higher education

Attention Members!

Your Help is Needed!

Do you want to seize the opportunity to interact with numerous local businesses while supporting women in pursuit of their educational goals? Do you want to become more involved in the Network of Executive Women and closely network with your fellow members? Now is your chance! The Scholarship Luncheon & Auction Committee is looking for energetic members willing to assist during January and February in securing sponsorships, obtaining raffle donations and marketing the 1st Annual Scholarship Luncheon & Auction. Committee members will play a key role in planning and raising funds for the March 8th luncheon where $1,000 scholarships will be awarded to four deserving women. Any level of support is welcome. For more information, please contact Haley Maple at hmaple@forizs-dogali.com.

of women. On March 8th we will hold the "1st Annual Scholarship Luncheon & Auction: Investing in Women Learning" at the A La Carte Event Pavilion.

January 17th is a holiday for one of the greatest heroes of the Civil Rights Movement Martin Luther King Jr. He spoke out against segregation, discrimination, and hate. He stood up for African-Americans and poor people. On August 28, 1963, at the Lincoln Memorial, Washington D.C. Martin Luther King Jr. delivered one of his greatest speeches "I have a dream."

Many of you will make New Year resolutions; so as you approach the New Year I hope that you will make resolutions to help other women fulfill their dreams by giving back.

Together we can make a difference in the lives of women. I look forward to your commitment and participation in the Scholarship Luncheon & Auction event so that we can make it one of the most successful events ever.

"Alone we can do little together we can do so much." Helen Keller

Editor's Note

As we start a new year, you may be making resolutions. Consider adding a resolution to become active in one of NEW's committees. This is a fantastic way to get to know the other members and grow your business. If you give some of your time and energy to the group, you will find that the group gives back both personally and professionally. I can attest to this. To all the members that have supported my business and me, I would like to say thank you. I look forward to another year with this terrific group of strong, supportive women.

Holiday Charities

Our December holiday lunch was a wonderful turnout at the Tampa Museum of Art. We raised $126 for the Mary & Martha House and $121 for Teaching Tools. Thank you to all who supported these wonderful charities.

Upcoming Events

We will have some of our past scholarship winners speaking to us at the February 8th luncheon. They will tell us of the impact our scholarships had on their educations and lives.

The First Annual Scholarship Luncheon & Auction: Investing in Women Learning luncheon will be on March 8. We aim to award four $1,000 scholarships to deserving women.

Scholarship Luncheon & Auction

Call for Scholarship Applications!

Outreach Committee is sending an open invitation to area educators the first week of January announcing our Scholarship Luncheon & Auction program. Applications will be accepted until February 8th. The application and eligibility requirements are available on our website at www.networkexecwomen.com.
